

FIRST

FLORIDA'S FORENSIC INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH, SECURITY, & TACTICS

LEADERSHIP SEMINAR SERIES

Advanced Leadership Philosophies for delineating satisfactory leaders from great leaders

In partnership with Saint Leo University's Department of Public Safety Administration, FIRST is hosting a Leadership seminar geared towards providing organizational leaders (of all levels) advanced concepts and philosophies for delineating satisfactory leaders from great leaders through instilling the understanding of consistency of the basics. Through the continuous exposure to experts in various professional fields of work, the leader seminar series will expand your capabilities and performance as leaders of today's government and commercial workforce. Come join us and advance your professional development as a leader, starting today.

General Course Information

November 8, 2019 0900-1130 or

November 8, 2019 1300-1530

Saint Leo University

TECO Hall

33701 State Road 52, Saint Leo, FL 33574

Cost: $50 (payable by check or money order made out to Pasco Sheriff's Office - FIRST)

Registration: 813-235-6182

or email bethefirst@floridafirsttraining.org

Course Topics Include:

- Basics of Leadership
- Promoting a Positive Leader Culture
- Tips for Being a Good Leader-
- Increasing Organizational Effectiveness through Proper Leader Delineation

Course Instructor

This seminar is being presented by Lieutenant General (3-Star General) David Fridovich, who is a retired Special Forces Officer and former deputy commanding general of the United States Special Operations Command. He will discuss advanced concepts and philosophies of leadership based on his learned experiences as a senior military officer. General Fridovich holds a master's degree in political science from Tulane and his military education includes the Command and General Staff College, Joint Forces Staff College, and the British Forces Royal College of Defense Studies of Seaford House, London, England. General (Ret) Fridovich is a decorated Army veteran and has numerous joint and Army awards.